Dear Mr. Powell:

Thank you for your letter of February 27, and front matter for COMPARATIVE AESTHETICS: A WORKBOOK.

Unfortunately, I cannot express an interest in your material. Winthrop publishes basic level textbooks primarily in business, mathematics, computer science, and English composition. Thus your work falls outside the scope of our present ventures.

Thank you for thinking of Winthrop. I am returning your proposal with this letter.

Sincerely,

James J. Murray
